Amy Barrington

2-Day Clinic

April 19-20, 2008

Creamarye Brook Farm, Heber Utah

$190 for both days – Group lessons

Amy Barrington has been eventing and coaching up to the advanced level for 20 years. In that time, she has been named to the USET's long list, on four different horses, most recently "Platinum". Riders of all levels have enjoyed riding and improving under Amy's relaxed and confident teaching style. In Dressage, she aims to improve the connection and communication of horse and rider. Her jumping exercises build confidence in the horse while sharpening the skills and focus of the rider.

We have been fortunate to have Amy at all but one of our Eventing Camps and she never fails to impress us with her wonderful insights.
